

BRAYS MAKE and DO (EASIER ONES) + (DIFFICULT)

MAKE - the beds, breakfast, cake, cup of tea, dinner, lunch a confession, decision, excuse, exception, friends with make fun of, make a choice an application for a job, a cancellation contact with, a fortune, loss, money, offer phone call, progress, request, speech, statement, declaration, suggestion, trip discovery, mistake, sense

DO - housework, repairs, best, an exam, someone a favor good, homework, military service, nothing, something, anything business, operation, test, business, a good job, some work.

MAKE (more difficult) a mess, ends meet, breakthrough, certain, sure, amends, attempt, best of, choice, someone's day, difference, all the difference, example of someone, eyes at, fuss about, make a habit of -ing, haste, journey, love a mess, the most of, pass at someone, peace (with), room for, success, trouble for, your mind up, war, will, make one's way to,
way for,
an appointment, make arrangements, bid, a charge for, cheque out to, complaint, concession, deal, demands on, effort, enquiry, headway, investment, packet, point of doing something, preparations, profit, provision, someone red in use of, work for someone

DO research, deal, something for a living, do a roaring trade, away with, your bit, damage, dirty, evil, a good turn harm, justice to, WWW.brays-ingles.com wonder for could do with.